

K-Love provides religious music and news that would otherwise not be available in my community. A local broadcaster would not be able to afford quality programming on the same level as a larger broadcasting company. K-Love provides an alternative to local broadcasting, and I would sorely miss it.